Dear Connaught families,

This past Wednesday June 3rd, we hosted a Welcome to School event here at Connaught Heights for our new Kindergarten students and their families who will be joining the Connaught school family when they start school in September.

This event helps these students and their families feel safe, excited and connected to our school community. For some families, they are very familiar with our school setting, whereas for many others, it is a new beginning. A significant milestone for them, we hope that this opportunity to visit the school, meet their teachers and explore their learning environment helped to reduce the 'butterflies' or nervousness and continue to build their confidence (this may be more the case for the parents 😊).

We truly appreciated the chance to meet with the students and families, and we hope that it helped to lay the foundation for a successful transition to Kindergarten and a memorable start for your child's educational journey.

See you in September friends!

With gratitude, Mr. Elves

Principal & VP For The Day

As the winner of the raffle at our Winter Fest event in December, Lexie and Sylvie Lerch spent the day today, June 5th, serving as Principal and Vice-principal for the day at Connaught Heights. From doing the morning announcements where Principal Lexie awarded the students with an extended recess to visiting the classes to check in on the students in their learning spaces to visiting with Associate Superintendent, Geraldine Lawlor at the School Board Office, both Lexie and Sylvie thoroughly enjoyed their day as school leaders. When asked about her favourite part of the day, Principal Lexie quickly commented, 'Definitely doing the morning announcements!'
