

DISTRICT PARENT ADVISORY COUNCIL

Background

A District Parent Advisory Council (DPAC) will enhance communications among the school Parent Advisory Councils, the District, the Superintendent, stakeholder groups and the community at large.

Procedures

1. The District Parent Advisory Council is an organization of parent volunteers elected from the Parent Advisory Councils of District schools and is the official representative of school Parent Advisory Councils at the District level.
2. The District Parent Advisory Council is to:
 - 2.1 Assist individual parents and Parent Advisory Councils in expressing concerns and gaining appropriate access to the education system;
 - 2.2 Promote effective communications amongst Parent Advisory Councils;
 - 2.3 Serve as an advisory council to the Board, District administration and Parent Advisory Councils;
 - 2.4 Encourage the formation and continued operation of Parent Advisory Councils throughout the District;
 - 2.5 Provide resources, other than financial, at the request of any Parent Advisory Council;
 - 2.6 Provide liaison between the B.C. Confederation of Parent Advisory Councils, the Board, Senior Administration, New Westminister Principals' and Vice-Principals' Association, the New Westminister Teachers' Union and the Canadian Union of Public Employees 409;
 - 2.7 Provide and promote leadership in developing and understanding the rights and responsibilities within the education system.
