

Inclusive Education

School Based Team – SBT

School – Based Team (SBT)

A School-Based Team is a group of staff within each school who meet on a regular basis to problem solve, make suggestions and referral for supports.

Who is on a School-Based Team?

- Principal and/or Vice-Principal
- Learning Support Teacher – LST
- School counsellor
- Classroom teacher

Additional members may include:

- School District Psychologist
- Speech Language Pathologist
- OT/PT
- School District Behaviour support staff
- Parent/guardian
- Student/Family advocate or support person
- Outside agency staff (CLBC, private counsellor)

“A School-Based Team is an on-going team of school-based personnel which has a formal role to play as a problem-solving unit in assisting classroom teachers to develop and implement instructional and/or management strategies and to coordinate support resources for students with special needs within the school.

Special Education Services: A Manual of Policies, Procedures and Guidelines (BC Ministry of Education, 2016)

Looking for more? Additional information on this topic is available within our Parent Guide to Inclusive Education: <https://newwestschools.ca/parent-guide-to-inclusive-education/individual-education-plans/>

Questions about your individual child's needs? Contact your school principal.

